CMRL Honours Metro Construction Workers for Exemplary Humanitarian Act

Chennai Metro Rail Limited (CMRL) today honoured five Metro Rail construction workers employed under M/s HCC-KEC International Ltd. for their commendable act of civic responsibility and humanitarian initiative near Poonamallee Bus Terminus.

Recently, a woman who had stepped out of a restaurant near Poonamallee Bus Terminus accidentally dropped one of her gold earrings into the rainwater that had collected on the road. Seeing her distress, the workers who were engaged in Metro construction activities nearby immediately came forward to help. Using buckets and mugs, they drained the stagnant water and searched diligently until they recovered the earring, and their responsible conduct was widely appreciated by the public.

In recognition of their noble gesture, CMRL presented each worker with a cash award of ₹2,000 and a Certificate of Appreciation. The awards were handed over to the workers by Thiru S. Ashok Kumar CGM (T&EC) on behalf of CMRL. Officials from CMRL and contractor M/s HCC-KEC International Ltd were present during the occasion.

The following workers were honored namely

1. Mr. Barikul SK, Helper
2. Mr. Kalam SK, Helper
3. Mr. Sumon SK, Helper
4. Mr. Bariyul SK, Helper
5. Mr. Amir, Helper

CMRL appreciates their sense of empathy and public spirit, which reflects the values of cooperation and compassion that Chennai Metro Rail stands for.
